CAROLINA ASSOCIATION. A Brutal Murder-Struck by Lightning-

Searching for Miss Poe's Assailant-

Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

RALEIOH. N. C., May S.—The thirty-fifth annual session of the North Carolina Medical Society began this morning at Williams's Hall. Fayetteville—Dr. T. D. Haigh, of Fayetteville, presiding, and Dr. Julian E. Baker, of Tarboro', secretary. The attendance is up to the average. This afternoon President Haigh delivered the annual address. To-morrow evening the people of the town will give a banquet and ball to the society. On Thursday the society will participate in the memorial-day exercises, and on the evening of that day the annual oration before the society will be delivered.

McNeill, returned here to-day. He reports that her wound is not at present regarded as dangerous. No tidings of McNeill can be heard. This morning before daylight the town of Carthage, and particularly the house of McNeill's father, was strongly guarded, if having been rumored that McNeill was back in town in hiding. Search for him continued all last night, with the for him continued all last night, with the avowed intention of lynching. There is a belief this afternoon that he has after all ne safely away, and is now in Texas or on his way there for refuge.

North Carolina is rather coming towards the front in the matter of lyuching. There has not been a legal execution this year, yet has not been a legal execution this year, yet there have been five persons (yuched. On the 27th of January Matthew Bloust, John Blount, and Patterson Spruill (all colored) were disposed of at Plymouth by his Honor Judge Lynch, and the same judge had another vietim at Washington March 12th in the person of a white man, who boasted that he was the assassin of General Buyan Grimes. The last victim at this date is Frazier, who was disposed of at Washington hat Saturday night for the murder of Cox. Of the persons sentenced legally to be hanged there have been the following, the commutations being in every case save one to life imprisonment: Charles F. Jones, life imprisonment: Charles F. Jones Thomas, Hendersonville; Allem McCarter, Statesville, and Daniel Biggs, Wilmington.

The Wake county Grape-Growers' Association met to-day and heard reports. It is discovered that vineyards west of the city and in this township were not hurt by the frosts of late April, while vineyards east of the city have suffered much damage.

Rev. Dr. C. H. Strickland, of Nashville, Tenn., was this evening called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church of this city. He is a very able man and will receive a Newberne; Lucien Rowe, Durham; James Thomas, Hendersonville; Allen McCarter. Statesville, and Daniel Biggs, Wilmington.
